

Locations and how to find us

The River Camp is the pearl of Marienfluss: a remote region far into the north-western reaches of Namibia, bordered by the famous Skeleton Coast and the Kunene River, creating natural boundaries with Angola and the Atlantic Ocean. Two sets of mountains embrace the lodge and protect its beauty in a stunning “out of the world” location.

The Kunene river, with its wildlife and beautiful cruises, is rife with crocodiles but also safe spots where cruising, bathing and fishing are unforgettable experiences.

The River Camp offers dramatic sceneries of the valley surrounded by three of the most important Namibian chains of mountains: Baynes Mountains, Otjihipa and Hartmann.

The Camp can be reached by planes through our private landing strip or by an Indiana-Jones like 4x4 driving through the epic Kaokoland.

The Elephant Lodge is set inside Purros Conservancy, 55 km from the Skeleton coast in a stunning Namib desert “James-bond-style” location. Everyday landings can take place at our south airstrip while our north airstrip can be used due to rare river flooding events.
